SPONSORSHIP LEVELS

The University at Buffalo Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences will host its 14th Buffalo Pharmaceutics Symposium from July 26-28, 2018. More than 200 students, post-docs, faculty, and visiting scientists are expected to attend. The symposium will allow the school to expose undergraduate and graduate students, PhD candidates, and post-doctoral fellows to cutting edge research, and provide alumni, faculty, and industry partners with the opportunity to exchange valuable scientific knowledge.
